

About Tomorrow is an acoustic fusion band with Singer-Songwriter Lauren Tracy (RSA), & talented Guitarist Indy Laville (FR). Their music gives hints of Swing, Jazz & Blues in their original songs & old school cover renditions.

The duo has been gigging at many a Saigon joint since September 2016, as well as having toured around Vietnam in 2017, with a few stints in Cambodia in 2018. The duo has some exciting tricks up their sleeves having recorded their first single "You Can Take My Money" & looking forward to their upcoming music video & EP record.

Indy, night owl from France, is more than nifty on the guitar, with over 15 years of experience & no stranger to the Saigon music scene. He stuns audiences with his musical flair & influences the swing feel of the band with his gypsy jazz background, & all round know how of music.

Lauren Tracy, live wire from Cape Town, writes cryptic & soul provoking songs which mingle with her studies in Music Production & Psychology. She charms & delights audiences with her unique husky tone and captivating stage presence.

Let this be your formal yet frivolous invitation ~ grab your dame, your daddy, your fella, your fellow goons to get jazzed on the poison of your preference & the buzz of "About Tomorrow"
